Huon Valley Council appoints new General Manager

The Huon Valley Council has appointed Mr Emilio Reale as its new General Manager.

Mr Reale has more than 15 years experience in local government and has previously held executive management roles at Huon Valley Council and other Tasmanian councils. His last role was as Director City Services and Infrastructure at Glenorchy City Council (GCC). Mr Reale holds a Masters Degree in Public Sector Leadership.

Huon Valley Commissioner Adriana Taylor said she was looking forward to working with Mr Reale.

“I would like to congratulate Emilio on his appointment. It is an exciting time to join the Council in regard to growth of local development and community projects, and with his extensive experience he is well placed to lead Council operations to further this growth.

“The executive selection was keenly contested with very highly qualified candidates. The depth of Emilio’s experience in senior management roles in local government will be a great addition to the Council and its staff,” Commissioner Taylor said.

Mr Reale will officially start his new role as General Manager on Tuesday 14 March 2017.
