Summer School Holiday Program

With the summer weather warming up, the Huon Valley Council in conjunction with the Geeveston Community Centre, SETAC, Port Huon and Cygnet Sport Centres to provide a jam packed School Holiday Program running from Monday 7 January to Friday 30 January.

Huon Valley Council Mayor Bec Enders encourages all parents to have a look at the activities planned.

“There’s so much on offer from visits to the Hobart Aquatic Centre, Rock Climbing, Hobart Museum and Botanical Gardens or bushwalking in the Hartz Mountains National Park.

“There are sports days at the Port Huon and Cygnet Sports Centres, craft, art, music and cooking classes.

“We’d like to thank GeCo and SETAC for their help in creating the program.

“Council’s Community Services department has worked in conjunction with these community organisations to present a varied program for everyone from toddlers to teens,” Mayor Enders said.

“With both physical and creative activities covered there is something for everyone in this summer holiday program,” Mayor Enders said.
