

New No Standing zone opposite Cygnet Fire Station

7 November 2019

No Standing signs will soon be installed opposite the Fire Station on George Street, Cygnet to meet the request to provide easier and faster access for emergency vehicles and make the parking rules consistent with other fire station locations around the Huon Valley.

Four parking spaces will fall within the new No Standing zone, and vehicles will no longer be allowed to stop or park in these spots at any time once the signs go up in late November 2019.

Alternate street parking can be found along Frederick Street.
