

The Red Thread of Fate

Rowiina Howard

Friday 30 July – Monday 30 August 2021

Huon Valley Hub
10am to 12pm Monday to Friday
23 Main Street, Huonville

ARTBOX in the green space
25 Main Street, Huonville

A photography series set in the Tasmanian bush, exploring the way we can view ourselves through our relationships with others. The triptychs explore the dualities of life – intimacy and connectedness, separation and disdain – through the ancient Japanese legend of the red thread of fate.

What stories can you construct from the photographs, drawing on your own experiences?

The red thread should bind the pinkie fingers of those who are fated to one another.
